INCREASED EXPEDITION

From Baltimore, to Blakely, N. C., in Twenty-six Hours.

On and after the fifteenth day of October next, travellers from N. York and Philadelphia, reaching Washington by the evening train on the Baltimore and Washington Railroad, will be forwarded immediately by the Steamboat to Potomac creek, and thence by stages and the Richmond and Fredericksburg Railroad cars to Richmond, Virginia, which place they will reach at 10½ o'clock A M. next Morning; leaving Richmond immediately, they will arrive at Petersburg to dinner, and at the termination of the Petersburg Railroad, on the Roanoke, at 8 o'clock, P. M.; whence they will be forwarded by the expeditious lines of J H Avery & Co. to Halifax, Tarborough, Warrenton, Raleigh, Fayetteville, Columbia, S. C. Augusta, &c.

Returning, the stages from the South will reach Blakely Depot (the termination of the Petersburg Railroad) at 4 o'clock, P. M., Petersburg at 9 P. M. Richmond at 2 A. M. the next morning, and Washington city in time for the afternoon train of cars to Baltimore—making the trip each way, between Baltimore and Blakely, on the Roanoke, in the unprecedented time of twenty-six hours.

The above line is connected throughout, and connects at Hick's Ford, with the Boydton, Danville, and Salisbury line, and Northern and Southern travellers are guarantied against detention at any point on the route between Baltimore and Augusta.

$25 Reward.

RANAWAY from my house, in Anson County, North Carolina, on Monday the 1st day of August last, a bond Mulatto Boy, aged between seventeen and seventeen years, not very tall to his age but thick and chunky, broad face, mouth and nose inclined to be flat, broad teeth, has a mark on his arm, just below his shoulder, said to be the mark of a hog; this mark is very plain with a scar on it, another on his leg, a scar made by the bite of a horse; I am not certain, but think there are marks on his right arm and leg. The Boys name is John Beesley, commonly called Jack, but I have no thought he will go by that name. The above reward will be given to any one who will secure the boy in any Jail in this State.

3170 ACRES OF MISSISSIPPI LANDS FOR SALE.

THE Subscriber offers for sale all of his LANDS lying in Mississippi, containing 3170 ACRES.

These Lands were purchased at the first sale of Choctaw Lands held at Columbus, Mississippi, by men whose judgment of Cotton Lands can never be doubted. They lie in the Counties of Kemper and Oktibbeha, and are situated twenty-four miles west of Columbus, in a healthy, pleasant, and well watered part of the country and sufficiently convenient to navigation but believing that all remarks are unnecessary, as it is unreasonable to suppose that persons removing to the South would buy without looking and judging for themselves. I will describe the numbers.

Worthy of Notice.

THOSE afflicted with inflamed or sore eyes should be aware of the great excellence of

Dr. ADAMS' EYE WATER,

In the treatment of this troublesome affliction. It has been before the public but a short time, yet it has been fairly tested in comparison with all the common remedies, and with what success may be inferred from the extensive demand now existing for it, and from the numerous testimonials of its value now in the hands of the proprietor, one or two of which it was deemed proper to subjoin

Sir—It is with pleasure I state to you, that my wife, who was troubled with sore eyes, was completely cured by using one bottle of Dr. Adams' Eye Water.

JOHN GARDNER, Green st. near 7th.

NORRISTOWN, PA.

Mr Fisher—I take pleasure in bearing testimony to the superior excellence of Dr Adams' Eye Water over several others that I have tried Having given Dr. Thompson's a fair trial, I consider Dr. Adams' by far the best, and it is free from that smarting produced by Thompson's. I know several gentlemen in this place who have tried both, and they decidedly prefer Dr. Adams'. I consider Dr. Adams' Eye Water a very valuable medicine. Yours,

COPY OF DR. DEWEES' CERTIFICATE.

Dr. ELIJAH PRATT—Dear Sir:—As I feel it a matter of much public importance to possess a means of curing the terrible sufferings from sore Nipples, I have much pleasure in being able to say, that the Shield you offer for the preventing and the cure of this malady is better adapted to the purpose than any I have heretofore seen. In the two or three instances I have known them to be used, much satisfaction has been expressed, and have no hesitation to believe, it will generally succeed. I am so well persuaded of this, at this moment, that I cannot forbear to express a wish that our city, through the various apothecaries, may be supplied with them.

MILITARY CORRESPONDENCE.

The Governor of the State of Tennessee has caused to be published in the Nashville papers the following Letter from General Gaines:

HEAD QUARTERS, WESTERN DEPARTMENT,
Camp Sabine, August 28, 1836

Sir: I had the honor to receive by the last mail your Excellency's letter of the 8th of this month, advising me of the suspension, by the President of the United States, of the movement of the Regiment of Mounted Gunmen, which you did me the favor a few days previously to notify me were about to assemble at Jackson preparatory to their march to this frontier.

I deeply regret the trouble and disappointment to the brave and patriotic volunteers, and more especially the embarrassment to yourself individually, which my requisition has occasioned.

However much I may have erred in the hope and opinion which I entertained and expressed in my letters of the 28th of April and 10th of May last, that this frontier was no longer in danger of being attacked or again menaced by a formidable savage foe, I have the satisfaction to find that no great evil or injury to the service has as yet resulted from the error—an error into which the wisest and best of our statesmen appear to have fallen—and from the same causes which had operated upon my mind and misled me, namely, the apparent prospect of a speedy termination of the war between the Mexicans and Texans. I cannot, however, admit that I have erred in requesting of your Excellency the Regiment of Mounted Gunmen in question.

I have, during the last and present month, been strongly impressed with the belief that the whole of this frontier would be involved in an Indian war as soon as the threatened hostilities between our blood-thirsty neighbors of the West should be renewed.

When I learned from the Secretary of War that the President of the United States approved my views, reported to him in March and April last, to assemble upon this frontier an effective force of mounted men, equal to that of either of the belligerents—a force that would enable me to speak to both in a language they could not fail to hear and to heed; and when at the same time I found myself expressly instructed by a letter from the Department of War, dated May 4, 1836—(of which a copy is annexed, No. 1)—that the President will sanction the employment of whatever force may be necessary to protect the Western frontier of the United States from hostile incursions; and that the Department of War had addressed the Governors of the States of Louisiana, Mississippi, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Alabama, requesting them to call into the service such militia force as I may find necessary in carrying into effect the instructions heretofore given to me, adding, the theatre of operations is so distant from the seat of Government that much must be trusted to your discretion!" "The two great objects you have to attain are, first, the protection of the frontiers, and secondly, as strict a performance of the neutral duties of the United States as the great object of self-defence will permit;" and when to this is added the Secretary's letter to you of the same date, of which the following is an extract: "I am instructed by the President to request your Excellency to call into the service of the United States the number of militia which have been or may be required by Gen. Gaines," there can be no ground to doubt that I was fully authorized to request of you the regiment in question.

That from 4,000 to 10,000 Indian warriors will be employed against the inhabitants of the disputed territory, as soon as the theatre of the war between Mexico and Texas is extended to the bank of the Brassos, I have no doubt; unless, indeed, the prospect of our having on this frontier sufficient mounted force to repel the invasion of the disputed territory, and afford to the defenceless inhabitants that protection which we have promised to afford them.

I am more than willing to risk myself with 1,600 men for the protection of a thinly settled frontier of 400 miles in extent; but with full authority from the Department of War to call for whatever force I may deem necessary and proper for the purpose, I am not willing to have less force than I have called; for, without a force of 7,000 men held ready for action upon this frontier, the Indians can in one month destroy nine-tenths of the inhabitants within the disputed territory, with a great part of the adjacent settlements, including those upon the Red river from Alexandria to Fort Towson, embracing a large portion of the original inhabitants when ceded to the United States, with the finest cotton-growing section of the United States, whose annual crop has already amounted to millions of dollars.

If it be true that the Indians have determined to commence hostilities as soon as the Mexicans approach the settlements east of the Brassos, (and that this is their settled plan I have not a doubt,) then it must be evident that we cannot obtain from Tennessee, or from any of the central or Western States, sufficient force to prevent the apprehended depredations, as they may be to a great extent perpetrated whilst the requisitions for force are on the route to the States authorized to furnish it. With this impression, I cannot but consider our promise of protection to this frontier wholly unsubstantial, and calculated to excite hopes and expectations which we shall not have the sure means of fulfilling. I cannot willingly be instrumental in producing on this border scenes such as have occurred in East Florida—a frontier ravaged and desolated before troops for its protection have been marched or authorized to march from their homes.

In my letter to the Secretary of War of the 7th of June, acknowledging the receipt of his letters of the 25th of April and 4th of May, I concluded as follows: "Although I have upon the whole of this frontier about 1,600 regular troops, mostly infantry, yet it will be recollected that this force has to guard an extent of 400 miles of frontier, unsupported by any other than very spare set lements; and that the chivalry of Mexico may be expected soon to fly to the rescue of their President, and reinstate his red allies, and inspire them with a spirit of revenge against their white neighbors recently screened from their barbarism — Under those impressions, I have deemed it proper to request Governor Cannon to authorize the brigade of Tennessee Volunteers, enrolled under his proclamation of the 28th of April last, to calculate on the probability of another call at this place, and that, should I have occasion for volunteers, as I apprehend I shall, those enrolled shall have a preference to all others." In answer to which I received, on the 3d instant, a letter from the Secretary of War, dated the 11th of July, (of which I annex a copy, No. 2,) in which you will perceive no expression disapproving my purpose to call for a brigade of Tennessee Volunteers. The Secretary, however, expressly authorizes me to call on the Executives of Missouri and Arkansas for one thousand men each. But this authority did not reach me until the 3d of this month, when I had reason to believe the regiment of Mounted Gunmen, requested of you, had been raised, and would be here before I could have suspended their movement, if indeed I had deemed it proper so to do. This, however, did not appear to me proper; on the contrary, I deemed it necessary to request of the Governors of Missouri and Arkansas the two thousand men authorized as additional force, for reasons set forth in my letter to General Arbuckle, (of which I annex a copy No. 3.) Of these measures the War Department has been regularly advised.

Some of our fashionable party leaders, editors and others, seem very much shocked at my preparatory measures to cross a little muddy branch of the Sabine Bay (which branch some are pleased to call the Sabine, whilst others of more literary pretension call it the Rubicon,) to hold the savages in check, merely because some few white men have been killed by them, and some women and children, the wives of the slain, have been taken prisoners and carried off to the bosom of the wilderness!

In reply to such silly effusions of the selfish slaves of party, I need only remark that in deciding upon the course of measures proper for me to pursue, in reference to the outrages committed by the Indians near me, I think it my duty to consider the poorest frontier family menaced with the Indian scalping knife as entitled to the same attention, and the same vigilant measures of protection, as the most fashionable of our interior citizens. If I were capable of making an invidious distinction in such a case, between the rich and the poor, the lordly politician and the humble pioneer, and of taking more or less care of the one than of the other, I should thereby prove myself to be wholly unworthy of the trust reposed in me.

But I am exultingly reminded by some, that the people killed, and those menaced by the Indians, are not citizens of the United States. I reply that most of them are citizens of the United States; and that whenever the national boundary line is established in the manner provided for by treaty, many, if not all of those who find themselves left upon the Mexican side of the line will return to our own beloved country But, until then, we must protect them from savage massacre

Since I sat down to write this letter an express has arrived, with a positive declaration that he had seen and conversed with a Mexican officer at an Indian village, forty miles to the northwest of Nacogdoches, who was understood by the Indians to be engaged in setting on foot an expedition against Nacogdoches. This I believe to be true, because it is in accordance with the previous statements of several persons who are entitled to credit.

I have the honor to be, with great respect, your ob't servant,
EDMUND P GAINES,
Major General Commanding.

His Excellency N Cannon, Gov. of Tennessee, Nashville.

Caricature.—An amusing caricature has issued from New York. Van and Harrison are engaged at a game of all fours. Gen. Jackson, pipe in mouth, and with an expression of intense interest in his countenance, steals behind Harrison to take a peep at his hand, and as the Caricaturist seems to insinuate, to give a sign to Van, if necessary.—When he sees it, he exclaims characteristically, "what a h—ll of a hand old Harrison has got." And so it is, a powerful hand—Ace, King, Deuce and Ten—all but Jack, which Van has himself. Van makes the lead, and Harrison throws away upon it, saying, "take it—now for your Jack!" The cards are not played out, but the two hands are exposed, and the capture of Van's Jack is inevitable—which gives Harrison High, Low, Jack and the Game.

The PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES returned to this city on Saturday last from his visit to Tennessee, and is, we hear, in excellent health.—National Intelligencer.

Daring Outrage.—A negro boy named Jesse was committed to the jail of this County on Sunday evening last, charged with having made an attempt to violate a white orphan girl on the morning of that day. The circumstances, as related to us, are these:

Miss Worthington, the girl assaulted, had set out from her uncle's, accompanied by her cousin, another girl, for the purpose of visiting a sister of the former at Mr. Prescot's, on Core Creek. The negro overtook them on the road, and after having made several inquiries, such as what were their names, who were their fathers, &c., he seized the larger of the two, and forced her into the woods. The other fled towards her father's, for the purpose of giving the alarm. Happily for the unfortunate girl in the woods, succour came sooner than could have been expected. Judge Donnell and G. S. Attmore, Esq., were on their way to Lenoir Court, and arrived near the spot before the negro had accomplished his base design.—As soon as he saw the carriage approaching, he returned to the road and pursued his way, as if nothing amiss had happened. When the weeping girl had informed the gentlemen of what had taken place, they immediately pursued and captured the negro, and on the evidence of the two girls, the Judge committed him, as above stated, to await his trial for the offence. The girl, it is said, is about fourteen years of age, and the negro but little older.—Newbern Spec.

From Texas.—The latest news from the authorities of Texas, of an official character, is to be found in the following proclamation, which we have reason to know is an authentic document:

NACOGDOCHES, (TEXAS) Aug. 29.

Proclamation from Gen. Samuel Houston to the citizens of Texas.—From reports which have reached me, I am inclined to believe that our situation is unsafe; some Cherokees, with the native Castillians, have returned to the Cherokee village from Metamoras, and say that the Indians of the Prairie and a Mexican force are about to attack this portion of Texas.

The counties of San Augustine, Sabine, Tanahaw, and Beval, as well as Nacogdoches, will forthwith organize the militia of each county. The following requisitions are made to sustain the United States force at this place until reinforcements can arrive at this place from General Gaines, viz.

Sixty four from San Augustine, fifty-six from Tanahaw, fifty-six from Sabine, and thirty-three from Beval. The troops will repair to this place with the least possible delay, and report to the commanding General as soon as they arrive.

This call is made through the Judges of the several counties, and must be regarded as the law of the land; the troops will only be detained a few days: so soon as General Gaines can send reinforcements to this place, they will be discharged.

Let arms and ammunition be brought; at least one hundred rounds are requested. The Commander-in-Chief will be with the froemen of Texas. If they have to meet an enemy, all the men of Texas must have their arms in order: to have liberty, we must be watchful.

SAM. HOUSTON, Com-in-Chief.

This is, in several respects, an extraordinary paper. Here is the Texan commander-in chief calling upon the settlers for two hundred men to take up arms to protect the United States' force at Nacogdoches (fifty miles beyond the boundary of the United States) until Gen. Gaines can send reinforcements! The very statement of this case is an accusation against the Government of the United States of outrage and imbecility: of outrage in violating existing treaties and our obligations as neutrals, and of imbecility in using such a force of regulars for the purpose as requires a Major's command of Militia to protect them from Indians and Mexicans. The figure which "the United States" cuts in this Proclamation is certainly most ludicrous, and, we must add, humiliating and mortifying.

It is a curious coincidence that a Letter from an officer of the Army, which we find in the Army and Navy Chronicle of Saturday (the day on which the above Proclamation reached this city) shows that the rumors of the advance of Mexicans and Indians, on which this Proclamation is based, are wholly without foundation. The following is the Letter to which we refer:

FROM A CORRESPONDENT AT NACOGDOCHES.

"The six companies of the 7th Infantry, under the coommand of Lieut. Col. Whistler, which left Fort Gibson on the 5th May, arrived at Fort Towson on the 7th May, and remained encamped near that post until the 15th July, when they marched for Nacogdoches, Texas, and arrived there on the 31st July. The distance from Fort Gibson is about 370 miles. The excessive heat of the weather was exceedingly oppressive; and daily labour was required on the road between Fort Towson and Nacogdoches to get the teams along. Bridges and causeways were made; banks cut down; and the Sabine was crossed, by rafting over the loading of the wagons. South of the Sabine, settlements of Cherokees and other refugee Indians were traversed, as well as a Pawnee settlement

"The thousand rumors of the Mexican forces, and of the meditated attacks of the Indians, (one of which probably brought us here,) are without foundation; and our long and fatiguing march has been undertaken for nothing—except, perhaps, to create the impression among the natives of Texas, that the Government of the United States is favorable to the Texan cause, and will ultimately make common cause with them. WHETHER THIS BE THE PROPER COURSE FOR A NEUTRAL POWER TO PURSUE, is not for a soldier to decide."

Indian Treaty.—Henry R. Schoolcraft, Esq. Major Whiting of the U. S. Army, and J. W. Edmonds, Esq. were, on the 17th inst. holding a treaty at Mackinaw, with the Chippewa and Ottawa Indians, for the purchase of the tract of country lying between Lake Huron and Lake Michigan, and north of Grand river, and also all the lands lying north of these Lakes and west of the Straits of St. Mary's. The price to be paid is two millions. A correspondent of the Albany Argus states that Mr. Schoolcraft prohibits the selling of whiskey to the Indians; in consequence, there are no such disgraceful scenes of riot and bloodshed as are usual where so many Indians (4,000) are assembled, and where traders are allowed to sell them "fire water." This is highly commendable in Mr. S. and we hope the example will be followed by others in like situations.—Phil. Com. Herald.

Lyching a Judge.—An attempt was made on the 5th instant, in New Orleans, to Lynch Judge Bermudez, of that place. It appears that the Judge had given a decision, admitting some prisoners to bail in the sum of $15,000, contrary to the wishes of the mob. A number of young men, on the following night, repaired to his house, for the purpose of inflicting ignominious punishment upon his Honor,—but he appears to have defended himself most manfully—John C. Eagon, and John Bailey, jr., two respectable young men, were killed by the Judge on the spot; another man by the name of Merida, has since died of his wounds. An inquest was held on the bodies, and a verdict of "justifiable homicide" was the result. The persons arrested at the house of the Judge, have been admitted to bail!

FROM THE NEW YORK EXPRESS.

VAN BURENISM IS NOT JACKSONISM!

This must be our watchword at the polls, and we must separate the Hero from the Hero's PET. Jackson has done some service to his country; Van Buren has not. The attempt is making to smuggle into office a man without popularity, under the dazzling brightness of another's name. We must separate then the master from the master's man. Van Buren, we know, is Gen. Jackson's pet, but he is not Gen. Jackson himself. Nobody claims any thing for him but that he is Jackson's man. True, the principle is horrid, that a President has a right to appoint a pet of his to rule an empire when he is out of his chair. True, it is frightful to think that the Presidency is becoming heriditable, and that in default of heirs proper, the President would give us "the favorite son." Cause there is, to look on with fear and trembling when a powerful President abandons his capital and wends his way to a quondam Province to bid FREEMEN, as if they were his serfs, to appoint his favorite there. But, nevertheless, Van Burenism is not Jacksonism—THE SLIPPERY ELM IS NOT THE HICKORY, and we must remember that.

Parties are in a state of confusion all over this country, and politicians must cast their horoscope about and mark "the signs of the times." Where Jacksonism began, we have already seen the end thereof. Tennessee, though, it may be, is Jackson yet, but Van Buren has not there the shadow of a chance. North Carolina, foremost in her Jacksonism, has renounced with a loud and a certain voice the heir upon whom the Hero would cast his mantle without the spirit that it covers. Pennsylvania, where Jacksonism first had a foothold in the North, is now, in the sailor's phrase, a "shivering in the wind." The little "star" of New England "glory" is now blotted out. VAN BURENISM IS NOT JACKSONISM, remember that.

Look over this country now, and at the public men. Why, some of the very men of John Quincy Adams's household are the leaders of the Van Buren party now! Richard Rush, Mr. Adams's Secretary of the Treasury! he is now, as it were, a co-editor of the Globe! A. H. Everett, Mr. Aadms's Minister to Spain, is a Van Buren candidate for Congress in Massachusetts! The fact is this, as a general truth, the old Adams party is going over to Van Buren, and the old Jackson party is coming over to us. Even that curious, but highly gifted man, John Q. Adams himself is in a quandary, and without a compass, knows not which way to steer.

* * * * * * * * * * *

Strip Van Buren of his Democratic flag. He sails under false colors, and let us tear them down. The father of a litter of Banks in Albany, he calls us "the Bank Aristocracy!" The Crœsus of the land himself, he denounces men of wealth. While sporting his carriage, his horses, his magnificent equipage, and dandling his cane in his white kid gloves, he (or his party) calls all men of other parties aristocrats, that choose to enjoy such luxuries as himself. This is not electioneering, bear this in mind; it is but defending ourselves and telling the truth. Shame on the man that starts such appeals; but let Mr. Van Buren drink the bitwaters of his own bitter cup. He has attempted to array the poor against the rich. He has attempted to rally such prejudices for himself. With no religion at all, he flatters the Pope to win Catholic votes. With an utter contempt for all foreigners except such as have a title, and such as he has met in the Halls of St. James, he begs the votes of all the beggars and all the outcasts of all the poor-houses of Europe's poorest land! Give then Van Buren all the talents, all the elegance, and all the refinement that he claims, but make him not your President until he is, as Jackson was, AN HONEST MAN.

As the period approaches which is to decide the character of the National Administration for a long series of years, the whole country is alive to the importance of the crisis; and, as previous local elections take place in several of the States, which will indicate their bias in regard to the great question of the Presidency, the issue of these preliminary contests is watched with deep solicitude. In Maryland, for instance, the election for Delegates to the State Legislature took place yesterday, and in the States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, and New Jersey, the election of members to the 25th Congress, and State Legislatures, comes on in a few days. Various will be the arts resorted to by political partisans to mislead the public mind, and misrepresent the results of these elections, with a view to influence the successive trials of strength, and not a little caution will be necessary to avoid imposition. For ourselves, we can only promise our readers the earliest and most authentic information in our power, and that, if in any case we deceive them, it will be because we are ourselves deceived. They shall have the exact truth, as nearly as we can come at it.—Nat. Int.

Female Classical School.

THIS School will be reopened on Monday the 17th October, under the superintendance of Miss Green, from the District of Columbia, assisted in the classical Department by Mr. E. Tripp.

To secure efficient instruction, Teachers of approved qualifications have been employed, and the number of pupils to whom their attention will be devoted is limited. RAIL ROAD MEETING.

At a large and respectable meeting, held at Hamptonville, Surry county, on the 1st day of Oct. for the purpose of taking into consideration, the propriety of sending Delegates to the Rail Road Convention to be held at Salisbury, on the 10th inst.,

On motion of Ephraim Hough, Esq., Capt. John Wright was called to the Chair, and Dr. John Hampton, and Capt. Maxwell Nesbitt, appointed Secretaries.

The Chairman in a few forcible and pertinent remarks explained the object of the meeting.

When Josiah Cowles, Esq., offered the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we view with deep and abiding interest, the effort now being made to construct a Rail Road from Fayetteville to the mountains, and that we will cheerfully concur in all prudent measures for the furtherance of that great object.

Resolved, That this meeting highly approve of the project of holding a central Rail Road Convention, at Salisbury, on the 10th inst., and cheerfully respond to the invitation to send members.

Resolved, That, Alfred W. Martin, Jacob Douthitt, Frederick Long, John Long, John Holcombe, William Tolbert, Levi Chapell, Ephraim Hough, Phllip Holcombe, John Wright, Gideon Johnson, Benjamin Patterson, and Daniel Arnold, Esqre., (and on motion of E. Hough, Esq., Josiah Cowles was added) be and they are hereby appointed Delegates from this meeting to said Convention.

Resolved, That the Chairman be requested to inform the above named Delegates of their appointment, and request their attendance.

Resolved, That the patriotic citizens of Fayetteville for their liberality in providing a competent Engineer, at their own expense, to make surveys of the contemplated Road, are entitled to the thanks of the citizens of the Western Counties.

Resolved, That the distribution of the surplus Revenue of the United States, and especially of that portion arising from the sales of the Public Lands, is a measure highly just and proper in itself, and greatly desirable to the old States.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be signed by the Chairman and Secretaries, and fowarded to the Salisbury and Fayetteville papers, with a request to publish.

JOHN WRIGHT, Chairman.
MAXWELL M. NESBETT, } Secretaries.
JOHN HAMPTON, }

After the business of the meeting was accomplished the Hon. Lewis Williams delivered one of his most happy and spirit-stirring addresses which was received with marked and deep attention by a delighted audience, and must have carried conviction to every reflecting mind, that a preference for Martin Van Buren and a wish for the distribution of the surplus revenue, are incompatible with each other.

RAIL ROAD MEETING.

At a meeting of the citizens of Ashe County, at the Court House in Jefferson, September 23d, 1836; Jonathan Faw was called to the Chair, and R. Murchison was appointed Secretary. By request of the Chairman, James R. Dodge, Esq., (of Wilkesboro') addressed the meeting in a Speech of considerable length, setting forth the objects of the meeting, and the importance of Rail-Roads. The meeting was also addressed by Col. George Bower, Richard Gentry, Esq. Col. Jonathan Horton, R. Murchison, and others, when the following preamble and Resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, we consider the Internal Improvement of our State, an object of the highest moment to the citizens of Ashe, and believing that the time is fast approaching, when the resources of the State will justify a liberal expenditure for that purpose; and whereas the Rail-Road Convention which is to be held in Salisbury, on the 10th day of October proximo, is considered important, therefore,

Resolved, That we earnestly desire that a Rail-Road be constructed from Fayetteville to Salisbury, or same other convenient point within our reach, and that we will co-operate with our fellow-citizens of other counties, in the accomplishment of that desirable object.

Resolved, That by so doing, we do not wish to be understood as opposing other plans for the improvement of the State, or any part thereof.

Resolved, That Ashe County send seven Delegates to the Salisbury Convention.

Resolved, That Peyton Calvard, R. Murchison, John D. Watson, and James Blevins, compose the Delegation, on the part of the meeting, and that the Secretary of this meeting is authorized to insert the names of the other three, when so directed by the citizens of the lower and upper ends of the county.

Resolved, That in the opinion of this meeting, the next General Assembly of North Carolina, ought to accept the deposites of the public money, on the terms of the deposite law of the last Session of Congress, and that it will be the duty of the Legislature of North Carolina, wisely to appropriate said monies (or a portion thereof) for the Internal Improvement of the State, and for the dissemination of Education.

Resolved, That these proceedings be subscribed by the Chairman and Secretary, and forwarded to Salisbury for publication.

Navigating the Yadkin.—This has long been spoken of—in fact thousands were at one time, we must say foolishly, expended on the river to render it navigable; and yet there is not even so much as a flat bottomed boat at this time plying on its waters farther north than Cheraw, S. C. Happily, however, this subject, of such infinite importance, is again we hope, about to receive some attention:—the idea of instituting Shallow Draught Steam Boat Navigation has recently been brought forward, and as it is well known that many of our inland streams are navigated with steam vessels drawing but a few feet of water, it would appear that such boats could be used and effectually too, on this river running through the entire breadth of our State. From a communication in the Carolina Watchman, by G. W. Pearson, who made a survey of the Yadkin from about 12 miles above the Surry line, to the Montgomery line, at Stoke's Ferry, a distance of about 80 miles, it seems in that distance there are 38 shoals, one third of which could be passed in common water with boats drawing from 2 feet water, and that in fact there are but or 6 shoals in the whole distance presenting any serious obstructions, and admitting the rapids at each shoal would average a mile, there would still be fifty-five half miles smooth water—that is from flat Swamp, to Bean's shoals in Surry.

LATEST FROM FLORIDA.

TALLAHASSEE, Sept. 1

Sir: I have the honor, herewith, to enclose copies of my last letters General Jesup and Commodore Dallas, which will explain to you full plans for conducting the war against the Seminole Indians. Since the date of those letters I have had a personal interview with General Jesup, which, with great magnanimity, he declines the command of the army in Florida, and proposes to serve under my authority as a volunteer. It is gratifying to me to know that the country will have the benefit of his talents and experience even though he declines the nominal command of the army. He will be in Florida by the 7th instant, with the forces under his command. I shall march to-morrow, at the head of the Tennessee, and a small number of the Florida volunteers, and hope to meet the enemy before the 15th of October.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
R. K. CALL,
Commanding the Army in Florida.
The Hon. LEWIS CASS, Secretary of War.

Extract from a letter to a gentleman in this city, from an officer of the Tennessee Volunteers, dated

TALLAHASSEE, Florida, Sept. 13.

"On to-morrow morning we take up the line of march for the Wythlacoochee. Our brigade, 1,400 strong, under the command of Gen. Robert Armstrong, from Nashville. There will be added 1,000 Floridians and 800 regulars, with 200 or 300 Indians, in co-operation with us. We have great ambition and high hopes of putting an end to the war."

Slave Holders, awake!—The Pennsylvanian, Van Buren's organ in Philadelphia, is appealing to the Quakers in behalf of Van, on the ground that he advocated the Missouri Restrictions, or in other words, on the ground of his hostility to slavery. The Pennsylvanian calls on the Quakers, as Americans, as free men as christians, to vote for Van Buren as a friend, and against Gen. Harrison as an enemy of those restrictions. The South will remember this in November, and crush the incipient treason.

The Editor of the Observer has returned to his post, after an absence of several weeks.

He has occasion to thank those friends who have so spiritedly filled the Editorial chair during his absence, and has only to regret that the good cause has not the benefit of the regular contributions of such able and zealous advocates. Most of the Editorials of the present week, it will be observed, are from the same pens, having been prepared before our return.

The materials for the enlargement of the Observer are on the way, and we hope speedily to have them in use. For the present week, however, we are under the necessity of apologising to our readers for the meagre fare served up to them. The unavoidable absence of three of our hands, has made it extremely difficult to issue a paper even at the usual time.

The River.—We have pleasure in stating that the late rains have swelled the River so much as to warrant the immediate commencement of Steam Boat navigation between this place and Wilmington.

New Mail Arrangement.—We learn that after the 15th inst., the Northern Mail will arrive here at 8 o'clock A. M., instead of 1 o'clock P. M.—and the Southern at 1½ P. M., instead of 3½ A. M. The Northern mail will close at 2, and depart at 3½ P. M., and the Southern close at 8, and depart at 9 A. M.

There is no change in the other Mails.

Maryland.—Glorious Whig Victory!—The recent election of Members of the House of Delegates of the Legislature of Maryland, has resulted in the complete triumph of the Whigs, and total overthrow of the party which would have degraded the state, to the condition of a Territory, rather than permit its vote to be given against Van Buren. Of 80 members composing that branch of the Legislature, 60 Whigs have been elected, 19 Vans, and 1 tied. Of almost all the counties which elected the glorious nineteen, the Whigs have succeeded, and in Baltimore the Van Buren majority is reduced in one short month from 1041 to 299. It is a glorious triumph.

Georgia.—Returns from the late election in about 20 counties out of nearly 100, show a clear Whig gain of about 800 votes. It requires a further gain of only about 400 votes to secure the State. There is, therefore, great reason to hope for its regeneration. The result will probably be given in our next.

Extract of a letter to the Editor, dated

"COLUMBUS, Geo. Oct. 4, 1836.

Dear Sir:—I have but just time to inform you that our Election took place, on yesterday, and that the whole whig ticket was elected, by a large majority. Last year this county elected two Union and one State Rights Member to the Legislature this year all White members The lowest White beat the highest Van 213 votes. The Congress ticket run 289 ahead. So sure as the election takes place, the State of Georgia will give the Electoral vote to H L White Whether the State Rights party will succeed this time or not, they will beat in November at least 5000 votes"

The Surplus Revenue.—The Secretary of the Treasury has published an official statement, showing the money in the Treasury on the 1st instant, to amount to $41,285,654; and the amount "standing to the credit of disbursing officers," $5,326,425 79; making in all $46,610,130 79.

Gold Found.—On the 19th ult. a keg containing $89,000 of gold coin, was broken open, and the entire contents abstracted, whilst on its way from New York to Providence, in the Steam Boat Rhode Island. The Editor of the Observer was on board the boat at the time, and had no doubt, from all the circumstances, that the robbery was perpetrated by some one attached to the boat. It has so turned out. The gold has been found, partly concealed in the oil can, and partly removed from the boat. The captain of the boat, in whose care the money had been placed, had offered $1000 reward for its recovery.

Wake Superior Court.—Merrill Miller was sentenced to be hanged on Friday the 4th November, for the murder of John Whitaker.

Frederick C. Geer, tried for the murder of Andrew Crabtree, and James Terry, for the murder of his wife, were both acquitted.

A Public Dinner was tendered Gen. Dudley, on the occasion of his recent visit here, but declined by him on account of the pressure of his engagements.

The Medicine operates.—The Senior Editor of the Journal, who "lacks a wig" rather more than ourself it seems, has been operated upon—we suppose the recipe of Doct. Barter has relieved him of the abdominal swelling with which he has been troubled since the late Elections. In the last Edition he has given vent to a puff complimentary to the occupant pro tem of the "chair Editorial." His allusion, however, to the Editor, is wide of the mark. We assure him we have quite a fine growth of Hair on our "caput," and at present do not "lack a wig." As for our having private spleen to gratify, the "little man in black" is wofully mistaken. We have too much personal respect, to entertain for him any other than the highest regard—if we do now and then brush up the little man it is all intended for his own good. We are desirous to make him useful, and shall continue to dose him occasionally, to try and eradicate the bump of self conceit, which is so predominant on HIS "lack a wig" pate.

We are glad that it is in our power to contribute to the amusement of the sapient Editor of the "Pocket Edition;" therefore we continue to give "vent" to our feelings. Our wit might have been more piquant, and should have been, but as the little gentleman was under medical treatment, we feared to exercise it farther than we have, lest we might make his "angry passions rise," and thereby cause such a flutteration as to prevent his giving vent to the mighty workings which ever and anon impede the utterance of would-be great men. And last, though not least, we knew the convalescent state of our prodigy, and feared that too much display on our part might excite him so much as to produce a relapse, and place him even beyond the skill of Doctor W ——.

In addition to the amusement we have afforded the Editors of the Journal since our "short occupancy of the chair Editorial"—it seems they have been cheered with flattering news from Tennessee relative to the prospect of "honest" Martin and immaculate Richard in that State. For their especial comfort and to enable them to keep a stiff upper lip, we make the following extract from a Nashville paper. The "Senior" will discover that the Rucker nomination wont do in Tennessee, the people are too much alive to the subject to be gulled even by the great Electioneerer,—they know Judge White too well to believe every vile rumour, and will most assuredly "sustain" him in the conflict,—therefore, we beg of our "senior" not to let those "cheering accounts" which he copies from his Van Buren organ, raise his expectations too high—disappointment will ensue:—

"Could it have been expected that the people would set down quietly under the denunciations of the President of the United States and bear without murmuring, all the opprobrious epithets heaped on them and their distinguished representatives, merely because they had chosen to support other men than those recommended by him? Have we not seen him, the President, in East Tennessee denouncing Judge White as a "red hot Federalist"? In Sparta, denouncing our Representative in Congress as a liar? At the Nashville barbecue, denouncing the opponents of Mr Van Buren as Federalists, Nullifiers and Newborn Whigs? In his Shelbyville letter denouncing the friends of Judge White as apostates? At Lawrenceburg openly soliciting a vote for Martin Van Buren? And even more!! OFFERING A BARGAIN in the Vice Presidency, to the friends of Judge White, to induce them to withhold their support from him!!"

"Tell me the company you keep, and I will tell you what you are"—so says the renowned Editor of the N C. Journal, whose rigid adherence to MODERN DEMOCRACY and the cause of the nominees of the Baltimore humbug, are only excelled by his acute penetration and subtlety. Will this sagacious politician be kind enough, to inform us who Richard M. Johnson is?—"The company" he seems most intimately connected with, are considerably "obscured by a dense black cloud."

The Journal says, that Mr. Van Buren, like an honest man, is at home attending to his own business—while Judge White is travelling through Tennessee. This may be so: honest Matty may be at home, or he may be travelling, for aught we know—or care. This however we do know, that he has had quite a conspicuous substitute, traveiling, not only through Tennessee, but through North Alabama and Virginia, using his personal and political popularity to induce the people of those States to vote for "honest" Matty, "double faced" Matty.—Can the Journal deny this?—will it dare deny it?

Mr. Van Buren and the Right of Suffrage.—We notice the remarks of the Journal on our Editorial relative to Mr. Van Buren and the right of suffrage. When the Editors shall have finished their argument, we will resume the subject, and show how far they have "kept truth and fairness" in their mind.

"The people against the Bank."—Such is the "head and front" of the address of the Central Van Buren Committee, which lately emanated from the office of the "Standard" at Raleigh, and which is being circulated as far as the famous "Extra of the North Carolina Journal." Now we should like to know, and we ask our erudite friend of the Journal, whose name we see figures among those of the signers, against what Bank are the people of North Carolina called upon to array themselves? Can it be either of our local banks? If so, which one? Give us light on the subject.

Col. Stockard.—Some weeks ago, an article from the Fayetteville Observer, was published in this paper, expressing the belief, founded upon a statement of one of his constituents, that Col. Stockard of Orange, would vote for a Whig Senator. The statement has brought the Colonel out in a communication in the Standard; in which he says, he "never at any time, to friend or foe, uttered a sentence which would justify such an assertion or belief." and expresses his determination to adhere to the party.

We are concerned to hear that Judge Norwood was taken sick at Bertie Court, and has been unable since to attend to the duties of his Office. It is considered doubtful, whether he will sufficiently recover to attend any other Court on the Circuits.

Health of the City.—We are gratified to state that no new cases of Small Pox or Varioloid have occurred for a fortnight, and that, in other respects, our town is remarkably healthy.—Raleigh Register.

New Cotton.—Eight Bales of good quality from the plantation of Dr. John Hill, the first brought to market, was purchased by Mr. E. P. Hall, at 16¼ cents.

Wilmington Advertiser.

Arkansas.—The Legislature of the new State of Arkansas assembled on the 12th ult. S. C. Roane was elected President of the Senate, and John Wilson was chosen Speaker of the House of Representatives. On the first day of the session, a bill was introduced in the House (twice read and referred to a committee) to provide for the election of Electors of President and Vice President. The vote for Governor was ascertained, and was as follows: James S. Conway, 5,338; for Absalom Fowler, 3,222.

Petit Gulf Cotton.—Col. Macnamara, a very public spirited Planter of Rowan, has furnished us with some most beautiful specimens of this article produced on his farm, accompanied with the following note:

MAJ. JONES: I have heard much of the Petit Gulf Cotton; a friend furnished me last Spring with some seed of direct importation. I have given it a fair trial, and find that it will answer our soil and climate admirably. Its growth is more luxuriant and rapid than our ordinary upland Cotton—the bolls are much larger—the staple longer and finer, which you will at once perceive from the small sample which I send for your inspection. R. MACNAMARA.

Annfield, Rowan, Oct 3d, 1836.

We regret to learn the death of JESSE WILSON, Esq. of Hertford, N. C. which occurred a few days since at his residence. He was a citizen of great public spirit and enlarged views of internal improvement, and our citizens will have reason to regret his death from mere local considerations. He was a member of the Senate of North Carolina, and was opposed to the present administration in his political views.

Norfolk Beacon.

Mississippi.—The Standard attempts to deceive the public with regard to Mississippi, by claiming it for Van Buren. Hear what a gentleman of the highest respectability, who removed from North Carolina to that State a year or two ago, says in a letter to the Editors of this paper, on the subject.

Star.

"Mississippi feels the salutary influence of the result of the elections in North Carolina. The delighted Carolinians lift their heads and exclaim 'all hail to my own native State!' We are gaining ground.—That Mississippi will go for White, by an overwhelming majority, no man here in Lowndes county dares to deny, although this county and Monroe, which joins it on the north, are the most doubtful in the State. The good people of Columbus and its vicinity are alive to the subject. We had yesterday, in the town, a crowded court house, at a White meeting: and there challenged the friends of Van Buren to come forward and defend his course: but they could not do it."

Person County, 8th September, 1836.

MESSRS. OUTLAW & LEMAY.—Gentlemen: I discover by the Standard and other public journals, that I am pledged to vote for a Van Buren Senator. Such is not the fact. I am not pledged to vote for a Van Buren man for any office within the gift of the Legislature. It was proposed to me by many that if I would pledge myself to vote with the Van Buren party in the Legislature, they would insure me two-thirds of the votes in the county, which I refused to do, and advocated the cause of White, Tyler and Dudley throughout. It is true I pledged myself to the people of Person, if elected, I would not vote for Mr. Mangum, which I shall not do against the wishes of a large majority of my constituents; but, at the same time, positively refused to vote for a Van Buren Senator. I would further remark, that the gentleman who furnished Col. White with his information, exerted all of his influence, by fair means and otherwise, to defeat my election. So it would appear that he was not induced to support my election by those pledges he speaks of.

Should I live to take a seat in the Senate, and Mr. Moseley should run for Speaker, I expect to vote for him, as I understand he makes a good officer, and discharges the duties of the chair with dignity and impartiality; provided I could know it would not be claimed as a party victory. I am the tool of no party; but

Your humble servant,

JOHN BARNETT.

Baltimore Caucus.—If the "sayings and doings" of this Anti Republican Caucus are sustained and approved of by the People, we greatly fear, that we may bid a long farewell to our rights and liberties. If Mr. VAN BUREN be elected now, Col. JOHNSON will be his successor, appointed by the same sort of President-makers.

And many an error, by the same example,
Will rush into the state.

The line of "safe precedents" will thus be kept up, until the Republic of America will become that worst of all despotisms, an ELECTIVE MONARCHY.

Raleigh Register.

MICHIGAN.—The Convention of Michigan has refused, 28 votes to 21, to accept the conditions of the act for her admission into the Union She is therefore not a State, and not entitled to a vote in the Presidential election.

FROM THE LYNCHBURG VIRGINIAN.

TREASURY CIRCULAR—INFAMOUS FRAUD

The Columbus (Miss.) Argus, of Sept. 17, contains a long letter from Pontotoc, exhibiting the disgraceful frauds, which "the government" has enabled its favorites to perpetrate, by a secret order from the Treasury Department, countermanding, at that place, the specie-paying Treasury Circular. It will be recollected that a few weeks ago the N. Y. Journal of Commerce asserted that a secret order, of this character, had been issued by Secretary Woodbury, and that the Globe met the assertion by a prompt denial. What will the reader say of the honesty of the Administration, and of the veracity of the Globe, when they perceive, by the subjoined extract of a letter from Pontotoc, that this secret order was issued, was publicly read, and acted upon at the Land Office in that place? After giving a description of various manœuvres, shiftings and equivocations, the writer says:

"All was doubt and uncertainty up to 8 o'clock this morning. The Jackson Van Buren men were to be seen every where protesting that every thing would be conducted fair and honestly! At this moment a tall, genteel looking gentleman rode up, "A despatch from Secretary Woodbury," was the cry that passed from lips to lips, through the assembled crowd All hurried around the stand to learn what new change was about to take place. It was occupied by an elderly gentleman, who with a sermonic voice detailed a great many things about the modus operandi, and retired. Another individual then took the stand, and talked long and largely about the oath to be taken by settlers, and wound up by saying that if any land was purchased by an Indian, it must be paid for in specie.

Shortly afterwards, the elderly gentleman read a letter from Secretary Woodbury, addressed to the President or Cashier of the Decatur Bank, which gives them the power to determine what sort of money should be received in payment for Chickasaw Lands!! Thus the matter stands It seems clear that the Treasury Order was issued to prevent purchasers from attending the land sales. There are large numbers of Van Buren men here who will obtain all the lands at a low price While the poor humbugged fellows who went to an enormous expense to procure the hard dollars, cannot compete with them and are forced to quit. On the eve of the land sales the Treasury Circular is rescinded The Government officers will be forced to answer the following questions: For what end was the Treasury Circular issued? And why at this precise moment was it recalled?—These are short questions, and we should like to have them answered."

It is more remarkable, that this Treasury Circular was rescinded no where else, as we have yet heard, but at the Pontotoc Land Office—and still more remarkable that there it was rescinded by a secret order. Is it not palpable as the sun at noon-day, that the Administration is lending itself to favorite speculators, and closing the door to fair and honorable competition in the disposal of the public domain? that it is employing the people's lands, as it is the public offices, to reward party favorites? And will the people sustain such an Administration, or elect to the Presidency a man who is pledged to "carry out its principles and policy"? We will not believe it.

The same letter tells us that this barefaced fraud had excited just indignation there—and it cannot out have the same effect with right-minded men every where.—The writer adds:

"The effect of this proceeding has caused a change in political feeling. Many of the most influential men here have slipped the collar, and express their decided disapprobation of the course of the administration in this matter. Some attempt its defence, but only by inflicting a stab upon Secretary Woodbury. Every thing is charged against him by the Van Buren party, but all who know him best shrewdly suspect that he is a tool in the hands of Van Buren.

"On Tuesday the door was thrown open a little wider, and all who lived in the Chickasaw Nation are permitted to purchase a half section of land and pay for it in bills.

Thus have I given you a concise account of the manœuvering of the office-holders of the administration, and you can judge for yourself, whether in meddling with the financial concerns of our country the officers are governed more by self interest than the common good."

The Florida Campaign.—The National Intelligencer announces that the President has ordered a court of inquiry to be held at Frederick, in Maryland, as soon as the state of the service will permit, to investigate the cause of the failure of the campaign in Florida, under Generals Scott and Gaines, and of the delay in the prosecution of the campaign against the Creeks in Alabama.

The court will consist of major General Macomb, president, Brig. Generals Brady and Atkinson, and Capt. Samuel Cooper, judge advocate and recorder. The president of the court to be the judge.

DIED,

It is with deep regret that we have to record the death of our late townsman, Col. JOSHUA W. COCHRAN, the Editor of the Wilmington Advertiser, which occurred in Wilmington on Thursday last, after a brief illness, of bilious fever. He was a gentleman of liberal education and polished manners, and was highly esteemed by a large circle of relatives and friends, both in this town and Wilmington. He had but a few months since taken charge of the Press in Wilmington, where both his friends and himself had reason to hope for a long course of usefulness. In his death the Whig cause has lost an able and devoted advocate, and his family a beloved member.

In this county, on Sunday last, JOHN EVANS, eldest son of Jonathan Evans, Esq. aged about 14 years.

PETERSBURG RAIL ROAD OFFICE, 1st October, 1836.

Messrs Outlaw & Lemay,

GENTLEMEN,—I have this moment seen an Advertisement in your paper headed "Base Imposition," and signed by six respectable gentleman, from Georgia and Alabama, complaining of the conduct of the contractors on the stage line between Washington and Fayetteville. The truth of their statement we do not for a moment question, I assure them and the public generally, that immediate steps will be taken by this Company, to correct the evil, if it is possible to effect it—Messrs. Avery & Co. are bound to the Petersburg Rail Road Company, under a heavy penalty, "to have, at all times, at both ends of the Rail Road, a sufficient number of comfortable post coaches, good horses and careful drivers, for the transportation of all the travel which may offer, say for the comfortable accommodation of the greatest number of passengers;" and they further covenant "that the charge for travelling upon all their lines of communication shall always be moderate and reasonable."

If these Gentlemen (or any others under similar circumstances) will transmit me a statement "of the sums of money unlawfully exacted from them," properly verified, we will refund the same to them upon application; or if they prefer it, will honor their order for the proper amount, and seek redress ourselves, from the contractors. I am instructed by our board of Directors to make you this communication.

$100 Reward.

RANAWAY from the Subscriber, a short time since, three Negroes, viz:—MOSES, a waggoner, SAMPSON and JACOB, both boys, they are most likely with Moses, who is a stout, tall Mulatto, of down cast look, seldom looks a person in the face while talking; he has a high forehead. I presume he has a false free pass, and will doubtless attempt to escape through Fayetteville (where he is well known) to some non-slaveholding State—he will not be likely to show himself in Fayetteville, but will be apt to pass off at the Wagon Yard with Deep River Cotton Wagoners easily. Sampson is rather low than otherwise, not very heavy built, tolerably black, can do plain work in a blacksmith's shop, he is about 25 years old—Jacob is a slender, very black boy, about 20 years old, stutters very much. I think if a sharp look out is made at the Wagon Yard and Campbellton Landing, they may be taken. The above reward will be paid for their apprehension and confinement, so that I get them again

DYSPEPSIA AND LIVER COMPLAINTS.

THE PATENT MEDACINÆ STOMACHICÆ ET HEPATICÆ, formed by chymical analysis and synthesis of several proximate vegetable principles, are universally acknowledged to have totally eclipsed the pretensions of every other remedy & superceded the necessity of every other mode of treatment, wherever the above diseases are found to exist, as well as in enlargement of the Spleen and in Jaundice.

Among the symptoms of Dyspepsia and Liver complaints, are flatulency, sourness or burning in the stomach, melancholy, irritability, disagreeable taste in the mouth; great irregularity of appetite which is sometimes voracious, and at other times greatly deficient; thirst, fetid breath, nausea, weakness of the stomach, acid eructations, palpitation, drowsiness, irregularity of the bowels, pressure on the stomach after meals, pain in the head, dizziness or vertige; confusion of mind, attended with loss of memory, a gnawing in the stomach when empty, chilliness, affection of sight and hearing, pain and weakness in the back, langour, disturbed sleep, cold feet and hands, tremor, uneasiness in the throat, cough, pain in the side or breast &c.

These Medicines have been found so effectual in removing the Complaints for which they are recommended, that Physicians frequently have recourse to them for their patients, after having exhausted all their skill to little or no purpose.

Dr. Peters' Vegetable ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS.

These Pills need but a trial to recommend them. They are purely vegetable and well calculated for the removal of all Bilious Complaints.

They act specifically upon the Liver, when in a torpid condition, carrying off a large quantity of bile, through the influence of the excernent function, which, if suffered to remain in the system, would produce either Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, or some other grievous bodily affliction. In all cases of torpor of the bowels, they act like a charm. In recent cases of Dyspepsia, they are a certain cure. Many persons who were subject to violent attacks of sick head ache, have been much benefitted, and several, perfectly cured in a few weeks by their use. They are highly recommended as a preventative and cure of Bilious complaints. Persons who are subject to that distressing complaint Sea sickness, by taking a portion or two of them a few days previous to embarking on board the vessel, will be almost certain to escape it. Females can use them at all periods, without incurring any risk. Persons going to sea, or to a southern climate, should by all means take some of these Pills with them. Their virtues will remain unimpaired for years in any climate. No family should be without these Pills; a portion of them, taken occasionally, would be the means of preventing much suffering from sickness. It is from neglect of keeping up a regular peristaltic action of the stomach and bowels, thus suffering to be absorbed and mingled with the blood, unassimilated fluids, that most diseases are produced. Dr. P. feels confident that no person who gives these Pills a fair trial, will ever after feel willing to be without them. The testimony of thousands speaking in the highest terms of their efficacy, might be added, but the very high reputation Dr. P. has acquired as the inventor of the "Patent Vegetable Medicinæ Stomachinæ et Hepaticæ," in the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver complaints, is thought a sufficient guarantee to those wishing to make a trial of their virtues. They contain not a particle of Mercury, or any ingredient that does not act in harmony with health and oppose disease.

Dr. P. wishes it distinctly understood, that these Pills possess beneficial qualities independent of their purgative effects: they are both tonic and deobstruent, acting upon the secreting and exhalent functions; thus strengthening the patient, while they remove obstructions. Medicines which possess no other, except cathartic qualities, debilitate the patient, and their repeated use lays the foundation of a long catalogue of Chronic diseases.

Dr. P. having been educated under the most eminent American and European Medical professors and practiced his profession many years in the South, where diseases of the most obstinate character prevail, considers himself well qualified to judge of the nature of diseases incident to warm climates.

Prepared by JOSEPH PRIESTLY PETERS, M. D. P. B. C. P. M. at his institution for the cure of obstinate Diseases, by means of vegetable remedies, No. 129, Liberty street, New York, inventor and sole proprietor. Each box contains forty Pills. Price 50 Cents.

☞These invaluable Medicines are for sale in Fayetteville, at the Drug and Apothecary Store of J. J. LING, and at the Book Store, and may be had in almost every town in the State.

Fever and Ague.

TO THE PUBLIC.

WHILE I feel it my duty, I feel it also a pleasure, to acquaint those who are suffering under the Fever and Ague, of the striking cure effected on me by the use of Rowand's Tonic Mixture. I was first attacked with this complaint in August last, and though I tried nearly all the remedies that were recommended by my friends and neighbours, still the fits would return every third day. I then applied to an eminent Physician, whose skill was baffled; which rendered me hopeless in attempting any further efforts, as I was then reduced to a skeleton, and all had failed. Being informed by one of my neighbors of the wonderful effect Rowand's Tonic Mixture had on him, who was labouring under the same disease, I was induced to make another effort, and procured a bottle of said Mixture as soon as possible, and commenced taking according to the prescriptions. Though my case was obstinate, I found my agues checked before I had taken half the bottle, and myself fast recovering; and by taking the bottle, I was perfectly restored. Therefore, being fully convinced of its efficiency, I earnestly recommend it to all those suffering with that loathsome disease.

The Medicine can be obtained at all the principal towns in the United States, from the Agents for the inventor.

GREAT NORTHERN AND SOUTHERN

DAILY MAIL ROUTE.

Office of the Petersburg Rail Road Company.
February 28, 1836.

THE Petersburg Rail Road Company inform the public, that their Road, extending from Petersburg, Va., to Blakely, North Carolina, on the Roanoke, a distance of 60 miles, and constituting a part of the GREAT DAILY MAIL ROUTE North and South, is now amply provided with superior Locomotives and Cars, to accommodate all the travel that may offer. The Cars leave each end of the Road daily, on the arrival of the respective Mails. Travellers with their own equipages, can have their horses and carriages transported on this Road, with perfect safety and convenience; and thus, perform in 5 or 6 hours—while resting their horses, a journey which would otherwise require two days to accomplish.

The Blakely Hotel at the Southern termination of the Rail Road, has been rebuilt of brick on an enlarged scale, and no pains will be spared to render its accomodations such as will give satisfaction to passengers and travellers generally.

Besides the daily line of Mail Coaches from Blakely for the South, via Raleigh, Fayetteville, &c., there is A LINE VIA TARBOROUGH three times a week, connected with the Mail Line at Fayetteville, and also a line from the Rail Road at BELFIELD TO CLARKSVILLE, MILTON and DANVILLE.

In the course of the present season, a branch will be opened from the Petersburg Rail Road at Belfield, to Wilkins' Ferry at GASTON, ON THE ROANOKE, from whence a Rail Road to cross the river by a bridge, is now about to be constructed to Raleigh.

The Rail Road from Baltimore to Washington is now in operation, thence to Potomac landing, the line is continued by Steamboats; thence via Fredericksburg to Richmond, a considerable portion of the Rail Road is finished—and the remainder is in a rapid course to completion. The line continues from Richmond to Petersburg, by a turnpike road—and thence by the Petersburg Rail Road to Blakely, as before mentioned, is the main and only DAILY MAIL ROUTE BETWEEN BOSTON AND NEW ORLEANS. $100 Reward.

I AM authorized by Alexander Townsend, of Carroll County, Miss., to say that the above reward will be paid for the apprehension and delivery of his Negro man ALBERT, in any jail in North Carolina, so that he may get him again.—Albert was formerly the property of John Willis, of Bladen County, where he may be now lurking. He has a father at Duncan McAlpin's, in Robeson; an uncle by the name of Harry Barnes, in the lower part of the same County; an uncle belonging to Judge Toomer, by the name of Solomon, in Wilmington, and relatives about Simon Willis's Mill, in Robeson.—There is no doubt but he visits all these places. He is about six feet high, dark complected, 22 to 25 years of age. It is more than likely he is lurking about Judge Toomer's Rice farm.
